DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4-7, 9, 10, 12, and 17-27, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Habuto et al. (6,810,441).

Habuto et al. disclose a method of displaying a directory structure of a recording medium, comprising the steps of examining a directory structure and attributes of data files recorded on the recording medium (abstract); and generating a mark ("VOICE", "HIFI", etc.) for visually differentiating directories including at least one file of a pre-specified attribute, based on the examined attribute information (figures 1, 3A-E, and 10). The directory can be viewed to see whether or not certain pre-specified attributes are present, wherein attributes can be assigned to a specific song or songs, or attributes can be genre or etc (figures 1, 3, and 10).

Habuto et al. disclose the method, wherein said pre-specified attribute is (digital music.audio) (same as MP3), wherein the files can be classified in the same manner as seen in figures 1 and 10.

Habuto et al. disclose the method, wherein a display screen according to said displaying step includes the uppermost directory information for said each file as seen in figure 1

Habuto et al. disclose a method of displaying a directory, wherein a display of the generated mark (figures 3A-E) in association with the examined directory structure information is provided.

Habuto et al. disclose the method, wherein a display screen according to said displaying step includes the uppermost directory information for said each file as seen in figure 1.

Habuto et al. disclose the method, wherein said mark for visually differentiating a directory is displayed in connection with the name of a directory, including at least one file of said pre-specified attribute or not including any file attribute (column5, line 63 – column 6 line 5).

Habuto et al. disclose a method of displaying directory structure of a recording medium, comprising the steps of: examining a directory structure and attributes of data files recorded in a recording medium and selecting one or more directories including at least one file of a pre-specified attribute based on the examined attribute information, and displaying the selected directories with their respective hierarchical structures (column 5, lines 6-14)

Habuto et al. provide all the information needed for displaying a directory, wherein a non-selected directory can be excluded from being displayed, wherein if not selected, it is not displayed (column 5, line 63 – column 6, line 5; and figure 10).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2, 4-7, 9, 10, 12, and 17-27, have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
